

Influence Test Development

This is an excellent opportunity for California educators to earn extra money after school by actively participating in the development of California assessments. Meetings are held remotely. Educators will have the opportunity to provide vital input in test composition, accessibility, and implementation.

All California educators are encouraged to apply.

Upcoming Opportunities:

- Item Review Meetings: Participants will review items for issues related to content, bias, and sensitivity that may affect the performance of particular groups of students.
- Data Review Meetings: Participants will review data on the performance of test questions.
- Range Finding: Participants will score student responses using rubrics, and select exemplar responses for training anchors.

California Science Assessment (CAST),
California Spanish Test (CSA), and California Alternate Assessments (CAAs)
for ELA, Mathematics, and Science

Specific opportunities for the the CAST, CSA, and CAAs can be found at: <http://bit.ly/CAASP-GetInvolved>
